Fire and Snow across the West

Countries: Los Angeles (United States)

Hazard Type: Snow & Fire

Intensity: Moderate to Heavy

Expected Time of Occurrence: 12 Jan - 15 Jan 2025

Summary of Conditions:

Residents are urged to stay vigilant as extreme weather grips the region. Rapidly spreading wildfires fueled by strong winds pose life-threatening risks in several areas. Simultaneously, heavy snowfall and blizzard conditions are creating hazardous travel and whiteout visibility in higher elevations. Immediate action may be necessary to ensure your safety. Follow evacuation orders and winter weather advisories as issued by local authorities."
