PEER – Country Report (Pakistan)

Dec 2007 – March 2009

Introduction

National Disaster Management Authority has introduced Program for enhancement of Emergency Response (PEER) in Pakistan with an aim to reduce mortality in mass casualty events and to increase the survival rate of disaster victims. This program has two main streams, one builds on the capacities of emergency response of first responders and the other strengthen capacities of hospitals in handling mass causality events. The detail of PEER courses and outcomes of first and second round with overall achievements till date are attached as Annexure A, B &C. The contact details of all graduates and instructors are attached at Annexure D.

PEER National Objectives (Pakistan)

- Institutionalization of PEER in Punjab Emergency Service, Pak Army and Fire Services
- Development of 100-120 instructors for MFR and CSSR
- Development of 24 Master instructors for MFR and CSSR
- Nationalization of the Program for MFR and CSSR
- Capacity building in disaster vulnerable communities
- Training of 100-120 graduates (end-users) for HOPE and 24 Instructors

Implementing partner

International: NSET Nepal & UNDP

National: National Disaster Management Authority, Ministry of Health, Health Services Academy, Pakistan Army, Punjab Emergency Service Lahore and Fire Services Islamabad & Karachi.

Duration: 2 Years (Mar 07 – Mar 09)

The first round of the PEER courses was conducted under full funding assistance from March 2007 till 29 October 2007 in Emergency Services Academy, Lahore.

The second round of PEER courses is under progress under partial funding assistance from December 2007 to March 2009 in Military College of Engineers, Risalpur for MFR & CSSR and Health Services Academy, Islamabad for HOPE.

Brief Summary

The first round of the PEER Courses was conducted under full funding assistance from March 2007 till 29 October 2007 in Emergency Services Academy, Lahore. The second round of PEER courses was conducted under Partial Funding Assistance from November 2007 to Oct 2008 in Military College of Engineers, Risalpur. To date 22 various courses have produced 225 graduates (MFR&CSSR) and 119 for (HOPE) for details refer to (Annexure A, B&C) while 104 master instructors/ potential master trainers from the partner organizations are created (Annexure C). NDMA is also in a process to translate the whole curriculum in URDU language for wider circulation of PEER.

MFR and CSSR Adaptation workshops were also organized in addition to the regular 22 courses, with the participation of 7 experienced MFR/CSSR Instructors from Pakistan. After the completion of adaptation workshops in Islamabad and adaptation test courses at MCE, the adopted course material for MFR and CSSR is under translation into Urdu.

During 2008 four national instructors and two participants were also sent out of Pakistan for international exposure in emergency response training. It is envisaged that till March 2009 we will be able to meet national objectives by creating a pool of sufficient master instructors and evolving an effective national strategy for further institutionalization of PEER. We are only missing creation of master trainers which could be achieved by conducting a Master Instructor Workshop for our fully qualified PEER instructors.

The disaster vulnerable communities of Sind and Balochistan (2 district each Province) were targeted in Oct –Dec 2008. Three Community Response Training Courses were held with the help of PEER qualified instructors and 44 individuals 11 from each district were imparted emergency response training on international standards. These communities were also equipped with response equipment the formulation of SOPs is underway for operationalization of these teams
