

Heavy Rainfall Guinea

Affected Areas

Central and eastern regions of Guinea

Duration

August 7th – 9th 2025

Hazard Types

Intensive Rainfall/Flooding

Hazard Summary

A broad zone of intense rainfall is currently affecting central and eastern regions of Guinea, with particularly heavy precipitation observed over areas stretching from Mamou to Kankan and Siguiri. The red and orange zones indicate very high rainfall intensity, which could lead to Flash flooding in low-lying and Disruption of road networks and local transport, especially near Kindia, Mamou, and Kankan, Increased landslide risk in hilly terrain.