

Flash Flood Dehradun India

Affected Areas

Dehradun, Tehri Garhwal, Pauri Garhwal and Chamoli India

Hazard Types

Cloudburst Flashflood

Hazard Summary

A major cloudburst has struck near Dehradun, triggering flash floods in the Sahastradhara area. Continuous heavy rainfall has swollen local streams, creating dangerous conditions for residents and tourists. At least more than two people have been reported missing, and search and rescue operations are underway. Authorities are urging the public to avoid riverbanks, low-lying areas, and unnecessary travel. Traffic disruptions have been reported on several roads leading to Sahastradhara, and visitors are advised to postpone travel plans. With more rain expected, the situation may worsen stay tuned to official updates and follow safety advisories.