

National Emergency Operation Centre – National Disaster Management Authority

16th Sep

A westerly wave, coupled with moisture from the Arabian Sea and Bay of Bengal, is expected to bring rainfall and thunderstorms over upper parts of the country from 16th to 19th of September, 2025.

Punjab:

Isolated rainfall and thunderstorms are expected in upper parts of the province including Islamabad, Rawalpindi, Sargodha, Faisalabad, Sialkot, Narowal, Okara, Lahore, Hafizabad, Gujranwala, Gujrat, Sahiwal, and surrounding areas from 16 to 19th of September, 2025. Isolated heavy falls are also expected during this time period.

Balochistan:

Mostly dry weather is expected in the province. However, Partly cloudy along with isolated showers are expected in coastal areas including Lasbela, Gawadar, Ormara, and surrounding areas from 17th to 19th of September, 2025.

Sindh:

Mostly dry weather is expected in the province. However, Partly cloudy weather along with isolated showers are expected in coastal areas including Tharparkar, Thatta, Badin, Mirpur Khas, Mithi, Umer Kot, Hyderabad, Karachi, and surrounding areas from 17th to 19th of September, 2025.

KP:

Scattered rainfall and thunderstorm are expected in Chitral, Dir, Swat, Malakand, Buner, Mansehra, Abbottabad, Haripur, Swabi, Nowshera, Peshawar, Charsadda, Kohat, Bannu, Waziristan, Dera Ismail Khan, and surrounding areas from 16th to 19th of September. Isolated heavy falls are also expected during this time period.

GB & AJK:

Scattered rainfall is expected in Astore, Skardu, Hunza, Bagh, Haveli, Rawalakot, Neelum Valley, Muzaffarabad from 16th to 19th of September, 2025. Isolated heavy falls are also expected in AJK during this time period.