Japan: High temperatures forecast

Expected high temperatures until September 19 in both eastern and western Japan. According to forecast models, most of eastern and western Japan will continue to experience high temperatures through at least September 19. Warm weather is expected to persist through September 19 due to high pressure over the impacted areas, with some locations possibly seeing highs of over 35 C (95 F).